(b) if so, Government's reaction thereto; and

(c) the action, if any, proposed to be taken in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (SHRIMATI SUMITRA MAHAJAN) : (a) The Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI), vide the 24th Amendment to the Telecom Tariff Order (TTO) 1999, issued on 24.01.2003, revised the prevalent tariffs of telecommunication services. The implementation of the tariff was postponed to 1st May, 2003 vide the 26th Amendment to the Telecom Tariff Order (TTO) dated 27th March, 2003. The tariff announced by TRAI is Standard Tariff Package, and service providers can and will offer alternative tariff packages to subscribers, depending upon consumer preferences.

(b) As per TRAI Act, 1997, as amended in 2000, the power of fixing tariff for telecom services is mandated to the TRAI alone. The Government no longer fixes tariffs for telecom services in the country. TRAI is now the only Authority for exercising this power.

(c) Does not arise in view of (b) above.
